The Martial Arts Lineage of Grandmaster James K. Roberts, Jr.

Hawaiian Lineage

James Mitose
(1915 - 1981)

At the age of 5 he was sent to Kyushu,
Japan to learn his family's art of Koshu Ryu Kempo. He studied for 15 years and was the 21st descendent to master his family's style of Kempo
Shaolin Kung Fu.

William Kwai Sun Chow

(1914 - 1987)

Adriano Emporado (1926 -)

Masaichi Oshiro (1926 - ??)

Founded Te

Ken Jitsu Kai

Head of Kajukenbo. One of 5 men who originated the art in 1947.

Walter Shoo - Karate

Joseph Holke - Judo

Frank Ordenez - Jujutsu Adriano Emporado - Kenpo

Clarence Chang - Chinese Boxing

James K. Roberts, Sr. (1933 -)

Sergeant Girrard

James K. Roberts, Jr. (1952 -)

Korean Lineage

Hwang Kee
(1910 - 2002)

| Founder of Mood Duk Kwan Tang Soo Do

| Ahn-Kyung Won
(1937 -)
| | | |
| James K. Roberts, Sr.
(1933 -)

James K. Roberts, Jr. (1952 -)

With Much Patience and Hard Training One Develops Good Character

Japanese/United States Lineage

```
Takahara Peichin
                        Kusanku
  (1683 - 1760)
                       (1761 - ??)
      Sakugawa "Tode" Karate
           (1773 - 1815)
                    Created Dojo concept
     Matsumura (Bushi) Sokon
           (1797 - 1889)
                    Created Chinto, Bassai,
                    Naihanchi & Kusanku katas
      Itosu (Ankoh) Yatsusune
           (1830 - 1915)
                   Created Pinan katas
Chibana Chosin
                      Kentsu Yabu
 (1887 - 1969)
                      (1863 - 1937)
          Kanken Toyama
            (1888 - 1966)
                    Founded Shutokan Karate
           Ki Whang Kim
            (1920 - 1993)
       James K. Roberts, Sr.
              (1933 - )
       James K. Roberts, Jr.
             (1952 - )
```